WELFARE PROJECTS

➤ Some of the key welfare projects which have been funded through welfare funds are as under:-

- Establishment of holiday home at Raiwala.
- Up-gradation of Sainik Aramgrah, Lucknow.
- Provision of boats at Triveni Sangam, Prayagraj.
- Establishment of Student Hostel at Kota

MISCELLANEOUS

Investment Model Booklets.

- During our service life, by virtue of our commitment towards our profession, we often tend to neglect the aspect of making sound investments for our future.
- The Next of Kin (NOK) of Battle & Physical casualties are provided with some financial allowances to help overcome financial hardship to a considerable extent.
- AG's Branch has compiled a brochure on the "Investment Model" which will give some insight into multiple avenues and instruments of investment that are available in the environment.
- These booklets have been posted on ArmyWeb under AG's Br - DG DC&W-CWDte page and can be downloaded from there.

Donation to Armed Forces Battle Casualty Welfare Fund (AFBCWF).

- Armed Forces Battle Casualty Welfare Fund (AFBCWF) is a Tri-Services fund out of which ex-gratia is paid to NOKs of battle casualties. This helps the NOK overcome the financial hardships she might face as a result of demise of her husband.
- It is imperative that adequate publicity is given to this fund to encourage citizens to donate generously.
- Account details are as under:-
Armed Forces Battle Casualty Welfare Fund,
Canara Bank, South Block, A/C No 90552010165915,
IFSC Code – CNRB0019055.

➤ Donation to Army Central Welfare Fund.

- Army Central Welfare fund is the primary fund through which all welfare initiatives in Indian Army are carried out.
- All citizens who wish to donate towards Indian Army may do so in this fund. This fund offers 100% Tax exemption under 80G of IT Act 1960.
- Details of account are as under:-
